

Continued prayer requests...

- ◆ Judy Asbury is still having problems with nosebleeds and has been to the ER three times. Her doctor is making an appointment with a specialist. Also, her dog passed away.
- ◆ Mary Bender (Cindy Martin's coworker) is still pretty much bedridden, but her daughter has set her up with several agencies who are giving her assistance.
- ◆ Ralph Myers's daughter is trying to get him set up through the VA with home health care. Linda is receiving a new medication for tremors, and it is helping. She will be having surgery on July 12.
- ◆ Marvin Jett (Ralph and Linda Myers' son-in-law) is doing better and is trying to eat healthier.
- ◆ Cindy Peoples is now home from rehab.
- ◆ Steve Siler (Cindy Martin and Debbie Dalton's brother) is not doing well. Please keep the family in prayer.
- ◆ Sandra Blackstock went to an orthopedist in Roanoke after she fell on a cruise and broke her arm. At this point, they will be treating her with a cast only; no surgery. She found out this week she also fractured her rib when she fell and has been experiencing a lot of back pain. She is also recovering from Covid.
- ◆ Susan Myers is doing better. The last time she went for blood work, it was the highest it has been in two years but still is not normal. It was much easier with them taking blood with the port she had installed. She will be receiving an iron infusion on Friday. She has an appointment with UVA on July 20 for a consultation. If they are unable to help her, she plans to go to Johns Hopkins or Duke.
- ◆ June and Clayton Hannah were sick over the weekend with the flu. They are feeling better and hope to be at church soon.
- ◆ Terry Newcomb is still at Carilion Roanoke Memorial Hospital for amputation of part of his foot due to diabetes. He will have a third surgery on Friday to have a wound vac installed and may go to rehab before going home. He is still on antibiotics.

Satisfaction John 5:5-35 (NIV)

5 So he came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph. 6 Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired as he was from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about noon. 7 When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Will you give me a drink?" 8 (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.) 9 The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." 11 "Sir," the woman said, "you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water? 12 Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his livestock?"

13 Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, 14 but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life." 15 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water." 16 He told her, "Go, call your husband and come back." 17 "I have no husband," she replied.

Jesus said to her, "You are right when you say you have no husband. 18 The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true." 19 "Sir," the woman said, "I can see that you are a prophet. 20 Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem."

21 "Woman," Jesus replied, "believe me, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. 22 You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews. 23 Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. 24 God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth."

25 The woman said, "I know that Messiah" (called Christ) "is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us." 26 Then Jesus declared, "I, the one speaking to you—I am he." 27 Just then his disciples returned and were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no one asked, "What do you want?" or "Why are you talking with her?" 28 Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, 29 "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Messiah?" 30 They came out of the town and made their way toward him.

31 Meanwhile his disciples urged him, "Rabbi, eat something." 32 But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about." 33 Then his disciples said to each other, "Could someone have brought him food?" 34 "My food," said Jesus, "is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work. 35 Don't you have a saying, 'It's still four months until harvest'? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest.
